Payment for the full session must be made in advance. Spaces will be held for currently registered students until the 15th of the month before the new session begins. During the weeks that there are no courses, individual private lessons and practice rides may be available.

Pay per Lesson

- Individual lessons can be booked up to a week in advance if space is available
- Payment is required 48 hrs in advance to confirm your space

Practice Rides

Practice rides may be available for currently registered students with their instructor's consent

- 50 minute maximum duration including warm up and cool down
- Students may practice some of their skills while ensuring the ride is enjoyable for their horse
- Horses must be properly warmed up/cooled down and groomed after riding
- Riders must never ride without another person at the barn
- Minors must always have an adult parent or guardian present unless it is during one of the supervised practice rides

Pony Rides

This is a great opportunity to learn about the wonderful world of horses from a young age!

30 minute one-on-one lesson including:

- learning how to groom and tack up the pony/horse
- how to be safe and comfortable working with ponies/horses
- 15 minute mounted lesson

Introductory Classes

This is ideal for beginners to get you started on your equestrian journey. Available for ages 7 to adult.

45 minute private lesson including:

- learning to groom and tack up your horse/pony in preparation for your lesson
- a ridden part where you will learn basic skills in preparation to join the lesson programming

NEW! Opportunity to Learn on a Dressage Schoolmaster (Intermediate Riders only)

Queenswood has many kind and knowledgeable schoolmaster horses experienced up to the FEI Grand Prix level.

- This is an amazing way to learn the upper level movements on a seasoned horse
- You will be matched with a horse of third level dressage training or above to help you improve your skills

Make-up Lessons

Students are eligible for a maximum of two make-up lessons per session

- Must be scheduled on the predetermined make-up days either during the current session or the session immediately following (see Session Package section). If you are unable to make up the lessons during these periods, the lessons will be forfeited
- To be eligible, the lesson MUST be canceled 48 hours in advance via email only (lessons@queenswoodstables.com). Please include the day and time you would like your make up scheduled in your email
- Can be in a sem-private or group format and could also be a supervised practice ride
- Can only be scheduled in the current or following session's make up days
- Refunds are not provided

New Clients

- Please complete the liability form online prior to your arrival (<https://bit.ly/QWSLiabilityWaiver>)
- Upon arrival, come to the small indoor arena where your instructor/staff member will help you get started
- Every effort will be made to help students who are still learning how to tack up get their horse ready for the start of the lesson. The time spent teaching beginner students about grooming and tacking up may be used as part of their riding time
Exception: Pony ride and introductory lessons are not required to show up earlier than their lesson start time to tack up/groom. This is included as part of their lesson
- Riding helmets are available if you don't have your own
- ALL riders must ride with a boot or a shoe with a small heel
- Proper closed-toe footwear is required in the barn for everyone (parents, siblings, and friends)

Regular Clients

- Students should arrive at least 20 minutes prior to your lesson start time.
- Riders capable of tacking up on their own are expected to have their assigned mount ready and in the ring prior to their lesson start time.
